BeachWare today announces the release of our new iPhone and iPod touch game Turkey Hunter 3D. We can only surmise why these crafty turkeys began their invasion on such an infamous day as April Fools Day!

Turkey Hunter 3D

Save the day from the Turkey Invasion! Play through five separate levels of eye-popping 3D animated graphics and sneaky turkeys. Test your shooting skills as the turkey horde invades the farmyard, the suburbs and even the city. Match your wits with the fowl-tempered Turkey Boss and his aspirations of world domination. Clear as many turkeys as you can before the clock runs out. See if you have the turkey extermination skills to save the day. The high score wins. Let's just hope it's not the Turkeys with the high score, or Thanksgiving will never be the same!
